

PRESS RELEASE

MONDO TV replies to the news published by ANSA relating to the judicial proceeding pending against the minority shareholders of Moviemax Italia S.r.l.

The management of the company considers the claim groundless and is evaluating possible actions against the actors

23 October 2012: with reference to the recent news published by ANSA relating to the judicial proceeding pending against the minority shareholders of Moviemax Italia S.r.l., Mondo TV S.p.A. highlights that the judgment of the Milan Court referenced in the news relates only to some procedural exceptions and it does not contain any decision on the merit of the case, in contrast with the tenor of the news which seem to imply the contrary. The company informs that the Court adjourned the first hearing to the 19 February 2013 for the review of the requests by the parties for the means of prove.

Recalling its communication issued on 3 May 2011, Mondo TV confirms its, and Messrs. Orlando and Matteo Corradi's irrelevance to the facts of the case, and it highlights that the selfsame Mondo TV, Mr. Orlando Corradi and Mr. Matteo Corradi took formally part to the proceedings claiming the rejections of the actors' actions and claiming for their condemnation for temerarious action.

Therefore, Mondo TV confirms to consider absolutely low the risk of a condemnation to the claims of the actors, considering that its managing bodies, in particular the President Mr. Orlando Corradi never operated any managing activity, even less illegitimate, with Moviemax Italia and Mondo Home Entertainment S.p.A..

Furthermore, Mondo TV is evaluating any adequate civil or criminal action for the protection of its reputation and name as well as for the protection of its shareholders against Messrs. Rudolph Gentile and Marco Dell'Utri, son of Senator Dell'Utri, on the assumption that the above referenced judicial action, as well as the publishing by ANSA of partial communications may damage the interests and rights of Mondo TV and its directors and seem to be part of a number of actions brought in the last years by Messrs. Rudolph Gentile and Marco Dell'Utri against, among others, Mondo TV, Orlando Corradi and Matteo Corradi, with doubtful ground and creating clear interference.

Mondo TV, listed in the Star segment of Borsa Italiana, has its registered office in Rome and is a Group made up of nine companies; the Group is a leader in Italy and among the primary European operators in the production and distribution of television series and cartoon films for TV and the cinema, and is active in the related sectors (audiovisual and musical distribution, licensing, media, publishing and merchandising).
